e) Legislative System:

The Tsarlack constitution provides a bicameral style legislature of two houses. The process to legislate the Tsarlack State is as follows:

The Tsarlack Parliament

The Tsarlack Parliament is the Tsarlack lower house and is elected by the Tsarlack Citizens. It is the originator of legislation bills. Elected parliamentarians bring forward bills for discussion in fixed scheduled televised sessions. After extensive discussion parliamentarians put the proposed bill into vote and if absolute majority is achieved the bill passes to the Tsarlack Senate.

The Tsarlack parliamentarians are called “Members of the Tsarlack Parliament (MTsPs)”. The leader of the Tsarlack Parliament is called “The Speaker of the Tsarlack Parliament”.

The Tsarlack Parliament is composed of 324 elected MTsPs each representing at least one Tsarlack constituency according to population. MTsPs are elected to serve a period of 4 years. Eligibility to become an MTsP is open to all Tsarlack and EU citizens who are at least 21 and permanently reside on the Tsarlack Islands.

The Tsarlack Senate

The Tsarlack Senate is the Tsarlack upper house and is appointed by a special mechanism from the Tsarlack Parliament as well as special appointments by the Tsarlack Government’s Department of Senator Appointments and the University of Tsarlack’s Institute of Tsarlianism. The Tsarlack Senate reexamines, reconsiders, reassesses, re-evaluates and in a final process decides whether to veto or approve the bills. The Tsarlack Senate regularly meets in fixed scheduled televised sessions. If bills are approved are passed into Tsarlack Law enforceable by the Ts.P.D.

Members of the Tsarlack Senate are called “Tsarlack Senators”. The leader of the Tsarlack Senate is called “The Honorable Tsarlack Senex”. The Tsarlack Senate is composed of 50 Tsarlack Senators. They are appointed to serve a minimum period of 5 years.

f) Judicial System:

Tsarlack Law is based according to the laws of Tsarlianism with modified elements of common law, English common law and Roman civil law.

Tsarlack Supreme Court of Justice

The Tsarlack Supreme Court of Justice consists of the Supreme Tsarlack Judge and 12 associate justices [13 in Total]. At its discretion, and within certain guidelines established by the State of Tsarlack, the Tsarlack Supreme Court of Justice each month hears a limited number of the cases it is asked to decide. Those cases may either begin in the Tsarlack State Court or the Tsarlack Districts Courts, and they usually involve important questions about the Tsarlack Constitution or Tsarlack law. The Judges for this court are appointed in coordination by the State Council of Tsarlack on the advice of the King of Tsarlack and the Mayor of All Tsarlack. This Court is housed in the Tsarlack Supreme Court of Justice courthouse in PN, Montetsarlo.

Tsarlack State Court

The Tsarlack State Court has independent jurisdiction over disputes which have a connection to the Tsarlack Government. Cases are heard before and evidence is presented in a trial court. The Judges for this court are appointed by the State Council of Tsarlack on the advice of the King of Tsarlack and the Mayor of All Tsarlack. This Court is housed in the Tsarlack State Court courthouse in Court Hill, Weldomassa.

Tsarlack Districts Courts

The Tsarlack Districts Courts are the 6 trial courts of the 66 regions, territories and islands that are under the jurisdiction of the State of Tsarlack. Within limits set by the State of Tsarlack and the Tsarlack Constitution, the Tsarlack Districts Courts have jurisdiction to hear nearly all categories of cases, including both civil and criminal matters. The Judges for these courts are mainly appointed by vote from the Mayors and Counts of each of the six district territories.

Tsarlack Political parties:

The current political parties as recognized by the Tsarlack constitution are:

Royal Rigid Party (RiP)

Tsarlack Right Conservatives that tend to favor economic freedom, but frequently support laws to restrict personal behavior that violates traditional values. They oppose excessive government control of business, while endorsing government action to defend morality and the traditional family structure. The RiP usually supports a strong police force, oppose bureaucracy and high taxes and favor a free-market economy.

Royal Resilient Party (ReP)

The ReP usually embraces freedom of choice in personal matters, but tend to support significant government control of the economy. They generally support a government-funded safety net to help the disadvantaged, and advocate strict regulation of business. The ReP as a Left Liberal party tends to favor environmental regulations, defend civil liberties and free expression, support government action to promote equality, and tolerate diverse lifestyles.

Luckist Party (LP)

The Luckist support maximum liberty in both personal and economic matters. They revere Duchess Lucky as the once undisputed Queen of the “Ds”. They also advocate a much smaller government; One that is limited to protecting individuals from oppression and violence. The Luckist as a Libertarianism party tends to embrace individual responsibility, oppose government bureaucracy and taxes, promote private charity, tolerate diverse lifestyles, support the free market, and defend civil liberties.

Tsarlack Democratic Party (TsDP)

The Tsarlack Democrats run a Centrists party that supports a middle ground regarding government control of the economy and personal behavior. Depending on the issue, they sometimes favor government intervention and sometimes support individual freedom of choice. The Tsarlack Democrats pride themselves on keeping an open mind, tend to oppose political extremes and emphasize what they describe as practical solutions to problems.

Tsarlack Government Party (TsGP)

The TsGP wants the State of Tsarlack to have a great deal of power over the economy and individual behavior. They frequently doubt whether economic liberty and individual freedom are practical options in today's world. The TsGP is a Statist (Etatism) party and tends to distrust the free market, support high taxes and centralize planning of the economy, oppose diverse lifestyles, and question the importance of civil liberties.

Tsarlack Socialist Movement (TsSM)

The TsSM has a socio-economic agenda in which property and the distribution of wealth are subject to social control. Its economic policy envisions a state or collective ownership of the means of production. This control, according to the TsSM, may be either direct, exercised through popular collectives such as workers' councils, or it may be indirect, exercised on behalf of the people by the state.

Tsarlack International Party (TsIP)

The TsIP is the Tsarlack Communist party, and its political ideology seeks to establish a future classless, stateless social Tsarlack based upon common ownership of the means of production.

Tsarlack Green Party

Tsarlack Green Party (TsGr)

Tsarlack Greens generally support “grassroots democracy”, pacifism, and social justice as naturally related to ecology and human bodily health. The Tsarlack Greens want to prevent global climate change, and preserve other aspects of the natural environment are viewed as necessary to maintain human life.

Tsarlack Party (TsP)

The Tsarlack Party promotes Ultra-Tsarlianism as a form of identity that holds ethnically and culturally united the Tsarlack islands. Tsarlianists believe that Tsarlianism is the fundamental units for Tsarlack's social life, and makes certain cultural and political claims based upon that belief; in particular, the claim that the Tsarlack nation is the only legitimate basis for the State of Tsarlack and the Kingdom of Tsarlack. Tsarlianists also refer to the specific ideologies of Tsarlianism, which make cultural and political claims on behalf of The Tsarlack Royalty.
